

DEUTSCHES MUSEUM

Museumsinsel 1, 80538 Munich
www.deutsches-museum.de/en

OPENING HOURS

Open daily 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Kids' Kingdom open until 4:30 p.m.

EVERYTHING LIVE

For individual visitors and small groups of up to five people, guided tours, demonstrations, science shows and hands-on programmes take place daily free of charge and without registration. All programmes begin either directly where the activity takes place or at a guided tour meeting point in the relevant exhibition (indicated by a star on the map). The daily programmes can be found on our information screens, at www.deutsches-museum.de/en and in the museum app.

-1 LEVEL
Kids' Kingdom

A fire engine, a giant guitar and the gigantic marble run: the Kids' Kingdom at the Deutsches Museum is a paradise for children aged three to eight. There's no time for boredom here!

0 LEVEL
Model Railway | Modern Aviation |
Energy – Motors | Robotics |
Bridges and Hydraulic Engineering

From the very small to the very large: here you can admire our model railway, our small robots and our giant aeroplanes. Walk across our glass bridge and learn all about the first diesel engine. Why not watch one of our regular science shows in the auditorium?

1 LEVEL
Historic Aviation | Musical Instruments |
Chemistry and much more

Here you can see the famous "Aunt Ju" aeroplane up close, listen to organs in the Musical Instruments exhibition and have fun experimenting with chemistry.

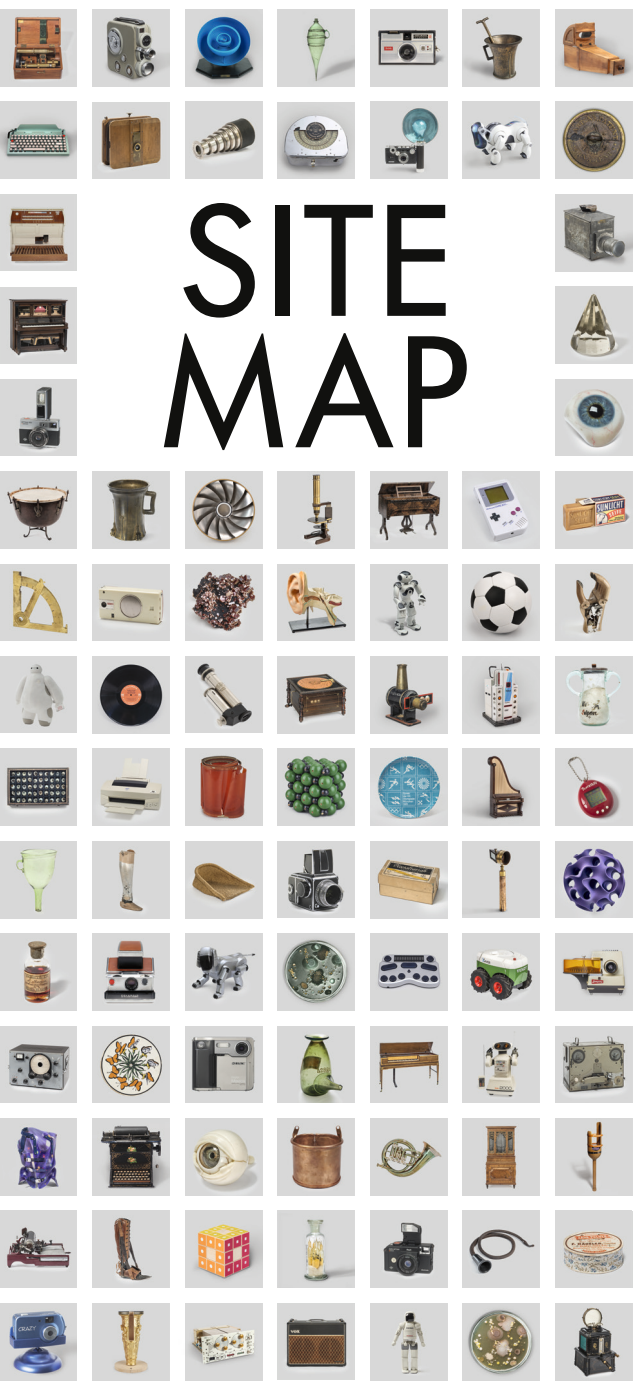

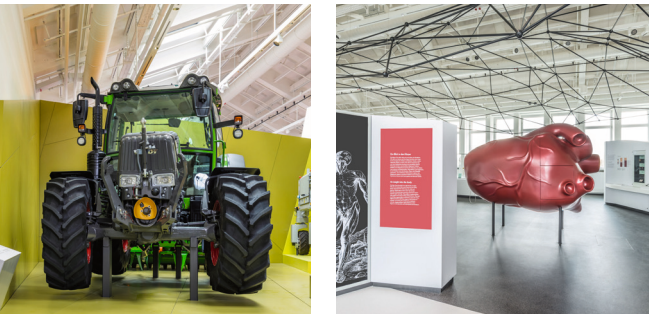

2 LEVEL
Astronautics | Image – Script – Codes |
Mathematics and much more

In Astronautics, you can follow the space race, in Image – Script – Codes you can marvel at cipher machines and in Mathematics you can try your hand in solving complex puzzles!

3 LEVEL
Health | Agriculture and Food

The giant human body in the Health exhibition is an experience in itself – as are the film of wheat field throughout the year and the farm machinery in the Agriculture and Food exhibition.
